

What We Do With the Money Entrusted to Us.

Last year World Concern had over 1,000 staff worldwide, and helped more than 6.5 million people through ministry efforts in 32 countries. Our total budget exceeded $74 million, with over $72 million going directly to families in need.

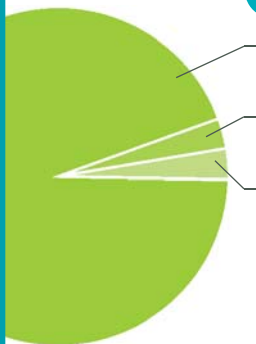

As always, World Concern is committed to wise stewardship of gifts from our donors. A key aspect of this is ensuring that administrative costs are kept as low as possible.
